Our junior coaching philosophy

The coaching staff and officials of Juventus FC understand that children participate in football to have fun. If children don't have fun playing football, they'll soon pack it in.

We never forget that the game of football is just that - a game. It's not about how many wins and losses are accumulated. And, it is surely not about how many trophies are collected. It's not about how many goals we score or concede. It's all about enjoying the game and, at the same time, learning and developing football and life skills.

Proper football development requires that children play age appropriate activities so they are able to experience, comprehend, and execute the game as it relates to where they are at their own stage of physical and mental development.

It is about playing in different positions so the player learns all the skills necessary to develop in the game.

It's about receiving equal playing time, so the players are all given equal opportunity to learn.

It's about learning the techniques of the game through a variety of fun games where players have as much contact with a ball as possible and learn at their own rates.

Code of Conduct

Football is an International game. All those involved with the game at every level, and whether as a player, match official, coach, owner or administrator, have a responsibility, above and beyond compliance with the law, to act according to the highest standards of integrity, and to ensure that the reputation of the game is, and remains, high. This code applies to all those involved in football under the auspices of the Durban Central Football Association.

1. Community

Football, at all levels, is a vital part of the community. Football will take into account community feeling when making decisions.

2. Equality

Football is opposed to discrimination of any form and will promote measures to prevent it, in whatever form, from being expressed.

3. Participants

Football recognises the sense of ownership felt by those who participate at all levels of the game. This includes those who play, those who coach or help in any way, and those who officiate, as well as administrators and supporters. Football is committed to appropriate consultation.

4. Young People

Football acknowledges the extent of its influence over young people and pledges to set a positive example.

5. Propriety

Football acknowledges that public confidence demands the highest standards of financial and administrative behaviour within the game, and will not tolerate corruption or improper practices.

6. Trust and Respect

Football will uphold a relationship of trust and respect between all involved in the game, whether they are individuals, clubs or other organisations.

7. Violence

Football rejects the use of violence of any nature by anyone involved in the game.

8. Fairness

Football is committed to fairness in its dealings with all involved in the game.

9. Integrity and Fair Play

Football is committed to the principle of playing to win consistent with Fair Play.

a. Code of conduct for Coaches

Coaches are the key to the ethics of football. Their concept and their attitude directly affect the behaviour of players under their supervision. Coaches are, therefore, expected to pay particular care to the moral aspect of their conduct.

Coaches have to be aware that almost all of their everyday decisions and choices of actions, as well as strategic targets, have ethical implications.

It is natural that winning constitutes a basic concern for coaches. This code is not intended to conflict with that. However, the code calls for coaches to disassociate themselves from a "win-at-all-costs" attitude.

Increased responsibility is requested from coaches involved in coaching young people. The health, safety, welfare and moral education of young people are a first priority, before the achievement or the reputation of the club, parent or coach.

Set out below is Juventus Football Club Durban North Code of Conduct, which forms the benchmark for all involved in coaching:

1. Coaches must always promote the positive aspects of the sport (e.g. fair play) and never condone violations of the Laws of the Game, behaviour contrary to the spirit of the Laws of the Game or relevant rules and regulations or the use of prohibited substances or techniques.
2. Coaches must respect the rights, dignity and worth of each and every person and treat each equally within the context of the sport.
3. Coaches must place the well-being and safety of each player above all other considerations, including the development of performance.
4. Coaches must develop a good working relationship with each player based on mutual trust and respect.
5. Coaches must encourage and guide players to accept responsibility for their own behaviour and performance.
6. Coaches must ensure that the activities they direct or advocate are appropriate for the age, maturity, experience and ability of players.
7. Coaches should, at the outset, clarify with the players (and, where appropriate, parent) exactly what is expected of them and also what they are entitled to expect from their coach.
8. Coaches must co-operate fully with other specialists (e.g. other coaches, officials, sports scientists, doctors, physiotherapists) in the best interests of the player.
9. Coaches must consistently display high standards of behaviour.

10. Coaches must not use or tolerate inappropriate language.

Payment of Fines/Suspensions

It is the responsibility of all coaches to reimburse the Club, in full, for any fines incurred during games and/ or any club DC Sanction. It is further the responsibility of each coach to comply with any appropriate sanction imposed by the club's DC.

b. Code of Conduct for Players

Players are the most important people in the sport. Playing for the team, and for the team to win, is the most fundamental part of the game. But not winning at any cost – Fair Play and respect for all others in the game is most important.

d. Club Code of Conduct for Parents / Spectators

It is important to remember that however good a child becomes at football within our club, you as parents and spectators have a very important role to play and that your positive encouragement will contribute to:

1. Children enjoying football.
